

This section contains a non-exhaustive collection of document templates and technical guides to compiling a marketing authorisation (MA) application dossier. They can be accessed by clicking on the document name or the web link. A series of documents for information purposes is offered, which provides an overview of how a dossier is examined. Access is also provided to the presentations produced by ANSES or the Ministry of the Environment.

These documents are subject to change according to the regulations and amendments to procedures.