

If it has been decided not to approve an active substance, a Member State may continue to apply its current system or its current procedures for making biocidal products available on the market for a period of twelve months from the date of the decision not to approve an active substance, and may continue to apply its current system or its current procedures for use of biocidal products for a period of eighteen months from the said decision (see Article 89.2.b) of Regulation (EU) No 528/2012).